

DOG PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHY

SECOND EDITION

CONTENTS

DOG PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHY

CHAPTER 1: equipment, cameras and lenses	11	CHAPTER 3: preparation for a session	51
1.1. Introduction	12	3.1. What to do before the photo shoot	52
1.2. APS-C vs full-frame	14	3.2. Approaching a dog	53
1.3. Comparison between formats	15	3.3. How to recognise a stressed dog?	55
1.4. Conversion factors	16	3.4. Handling a dog without basic training	56
1.5. DSLR vs mirrorless cameras	18	3.5. Use a leash	57
1.6. Choice of lenses	20	3.6. Finding a location for the session	58
		3.7. Finding new locations	60
		3.8. Photographing an unattractive place	62
CHAPTER 2: settings for dog portraits	31
2.1. Exposure	32	CHAPTER 4: photographing owners and dogs	65
2.2. Shooting modes	34	4.1. Capturing simple moments	66
2.3. Metering	36	4.2. Tips for the owner	67
2.4. Exposure compensation	38	4.3. Capturing the best moments	68
2.5. Dynamic range	40	4.4. Photographing multiple dogs/owners	69
2.6. White balance	43
2.7. Autofocus	44
2.8. Steps for a successful focus	47

CHAPTER 5: photographong several dogs	71	7.4. Colours in photography	102
5.1. Techniques for multi-dog photos	72	7.5. Adjust colours on Photoshop	106
5.2. Photoshop combination	73	7.6. Rule of space	108
		7.7. Centred subject	110
		7.8. Rule of thirds	112
		7.9. Phi Grid	114
		7.10. Viewing angles	116
CHAPTER 6: dog portrait in detail	77
6.1. Getting the dog's attention	78
6.2. Expressions	80
6.3. Postures and body language	84
6.4. Useful tricks for portraits	89
6.5. Spontaneous photos & light movements	90
6.6. Black and dark dogs	92
6.7. Posture comparisons & analysis	93
CHAPTER 7: composition in portraiture	97	CHAPTER 8: create dreamy photos with light	119
7.1. Working with elements and spaces	98	8.1. Introduction	120
7.2. Depth of field	99	8.2. Common mistakes	121
7.3. Foreground and background	100	8.4. Flat light	122
		8.4. Soft light	123
		8.5. Direct backlight	124
		8.6. Diffused backlight	125
		8.7. Side light	126
		8.8. Twilight	127

CHAPTER 9: post-processing with Photoshop	129	9.13. Creating Luminosity Masks	152
9.1. Colour management	130	9.14. Brighten the subject	156
9.2. Introduction to Photoshop	133	9.15. Creating a vignette	158
9.3. Blending modes	134	9.16. Creating contrast	159
9.4. Introduction to Camera Raw	135	9.17. Add a “glow” effect	160
9.5. Masking in Camera Raw	137	9.18. Changing colours	162
9.6. Cleaning	138	9.19. Using gradients	164
9.7. Adjust shadows	139	9.20. Using gradient maps	166
9.8. Adjust highlights	140	9.21. Colour Range	168
9.9. Eyes adjustment	142	9.22. Dodge and Burn	170
9.10. Create a mask of the dog	146	9.23. Finishing	172
9.11. Add sharpness to the dog	150	9.24. Save in high resolution	174
9.12. Noise reduction (optional)	151	9.25. Save in web resolution	175